RULES & GUIDELINES

Vendors may not sell ready-to-eat foods or animals. ABSOLUTELY NO RESALE, MANUFACTURED OR IMPORT ITEMS WILL BE ALLOWED. All items must be made by the vendor. We reserve the right to exclude any work we deem unsuitable for sale.

The Chapel is not responsible for damage or loss of a vendor's property. We do not provide: tables, chairs, tents, awnings or electricity. If you are selected as a vendor and cannot attend, please do not sell your space. Call the church office. We will have a waiting list and can sell your space.

SET UP TIMES

Friday, October 4, NOON to 6:00PM and/or Saturday, October 5, 6:30AM – 8:30AM

NOTE: Booth borders & numbers will be marked with spray paint on the ground. Security is provided for Friday night. Vendors may park in the booth area to unload only on FRIDAY. Your parking area is on the grounds of the old rectory house next door. On arrival please check in with the Vendor Area Chairperson.

FOOD AVAILABLE

There will be coffee and breakfast foods on sale early Saturday morning. The Food Booth offers lunch foods like hamburgers/hotdogs and barbeque plates. We also have a Snack Shack and a large Bake Booth that will be selling delicious baked goods, homemade breads, canned jellies, jams, relishes, sauces and pickles.

OTHER STUFF

Great live music will be playing all day. There will be a Chapel Attic Rummage Sale and a Silent Auction. The Kids Country features lots of games, 'moonjumps,' a petting zoo and much more. Our early morning 5K race has become very popular. Every year thousands make our festival a day-long destination for family fun and shopping.

If you have questions you can call the church office Monday-Friday, 8am-4:00pm at 601.856.2593. Applications, pictures and booth fees must be received by September 15. Late applicants may have to be on a booth waiting list.

We sincerely appreciate your participation in our festival and hope you will have a pleasant and profitable day.

With warmest regards,

Dana Tiffin
